Curriculum Development Best Practices

Creating a Strong Curriculum

A strong curriculum includes:

- + Goals for the course
- + Goal for each class
- + Art skills to be learned—including artistic vocabulary
- + Skills that are sequential and go deep
- + Social engagement plans
- + Culminating event plans

Crossing the Line: Drawing for All

8 sessions, 1.5 hour per session

Description Example

Drawing connects us to the reasons we are interested in the arts. It slows us down, engaging us in seeing and thinking as it feeds our imaginations and provides content for our art making.

Drawing is a learned skill that develops through practice and reflection. This remote online learning opportunity provides participants with clear instruction, demonstrations, feedback, and weekly challenges in a connected, supportive community of learners.

NO drawing experience necessary. ALL invited. ALL supplies provided.

Objectives/Goals

Participants will:

- + Develop drawing skills through application of observational drawing techniques and strategies
- + Cultivate new ways to see, look and engage with the world through drawing
- + Create drawings that express personal interests and ideas with pride
- + Develop community around the act of drawing

Session Plans Description

Session 1 Title:

"Taking a Line for a Walk" (Paul Klee)

Skill-Building Goal: Students will learn and practice continuous contour drawing Social Engagement Goal: Share drawings with each other and reflect on process

Brief Description of Class Plans:

- + Warm up: Favorite kind of line building artistic vocabulary
- + Demo continuous contour, intro and use critical response to reflect on activity
- + Experiment with blind and sighted continuous contour line application
- + Slow down, look closely and record what is seen; hold off judgment
- + Share drawings through experience, feeling and insight
- + Reflect on class process

Session Plans – Culminating Event Example

Session 9 Title: The Culminating Event

Skill-Building Goal:

- + Access and develop new observational drawing skills and techniques
  - Create drawings they take pride in
  - Create work that expresses personal interests and ideas

Social Engagement Goal:

- + Share artwork and sketchbooks with community via public exhibit
- + Create an ongoing community around the act of drawing and the visual arts
